Apolytikion: “Christ is risen from the dead by death has He trampled upon death and to those in the tombs he has granted life.”

Apolytikion: “When the women with Mary had come before dawn, and they found that the stone had been rolled away from the sepulcher, they heard from the Angel, “Why do you seek among the dead, as a mortal man, the One who exists in everlasting light? See the grave clothes in the sepulcher. Run and proclaim to the world that the Lord has risen and put death to death; for He is the Son of God who saves the human race.”

Kontakion: “Into the grave You descended, Immortal One, yet You destroyed the power of Hades and as victor You arose, O Christ our God. You proclaimed to the myrrh-bearing women a greeting of joy. You brought peace to your holy apostles and to the fallen You granted Resurrection.”

Paschal Donations

Deep and profound thanks are offered to those who donated towards Holy Week flowers, Kouvouklion flowers, palms, altar items, and other items used throughout Great Lent and Holy Week. The fresh arrangement of red roses that decorated the Bridegroom icon during Holy Week; the beautiful flowers decorating both the Paschal Banner and the icon of the Resurrection, and the red rose wreath on the Cross of Christ, were all generously donated.

Special Gratitude

Gratitude is offered to those who made Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Pascha a magnificent celebration. Many thanks are extended to our priest and visiting clergy, psaltes, readers, choir members, acolytes, Parish Council, and Ladies Philoptochos; also to those anonymous donors who quietly spread the message of love through charitable acts; to those who prepared and made the Palm Crosses; to those who contributed at the Palm Sunday Fellowship Hour; to those who decorated the Kouvouklion and the interior of the church; to those who contributed to the red Paschal eggs; the Holy Week readers; the Myrofores and their coordinators; the office staff; the many volunteers; the caretakers; and to the parishioners who work to assure that Holy Week and Pascha are meaningful and spiritually uplifting.

We need participation and support from all our parishioners to help the church continue to grow and thrive. Stewardship Cards will be mailed to all members who have not submitted their annual pledge yet. They are also available in the pews or at the Pangari. The suggested pledge is $2,200 per family and $500 for young adults. The pledge card includes an option to identify your interest in volunteering by ministry.

“COME RECEIVE THE LIGHT FROM THE UNWANING (NEVER SETTING) LIGHT; AND GLORIFY CHRIST WHO HAS RISEN FROM THE DEAD.”

In the late evening of Saturday night, the faithful come to church to proclaim the Resurrection of Christ. Pascha is the Feast of all feasts, and the Day of all days is about to be ushered in. The service begins with a vigil. By keeping watch and being ever attentive, the faithful joyously anticipate the proclamation that Christ is risen.

As the church is darkened, we are to view ourselves in Hades lying in our own tombs, a place of complete darkness. Darkness is a symbol of the tragic Fall, our separation from God, resulting in despair, hopelessness and death. The crowded church is also symbolic that Hades is filled with many people, all realizing that we are powerless to help one another. No person but Christ can shine His light upon us. With His presence comes an opening of the doors of darkness and a setting free of those held captive. Through God’s tender mercy “with which Christ the Dayspring has visited us to give light to those who sat in darkness and the shadow of death,” a light unto eternal life has shined.

Liturgically, the moment of great anticipation suddenly arrives as a single light appears before us. Christ has defeated death and has overwhelmed the darkness bringing us hope and new life. As every candle is lit by a single light, the church is aglow with the flames of hope, and the darkness is no more.

By accepting the light, we proclaim Christ as our Lord and allow His warmth and radiance to be ours. The inner darkness of our souls caused by the stain of sin is overcome by Christ.

As each person receives the light from someone else, it is significant to consider its meaning. In life, we come to know Christ by the introduction from other people, be they parents, godparents, priests, friends, spouse, etc. Having taken the Holy Light from another, we must preserve the Holy Light lest it be extinguished. Our faith will never be extinguished if we make a personal pledge to allow Christ to be our God. We are stewards of all His gifts. Accordingly, we must preserve the virtue and goodness that have been entrusted to us. Christ is risen. Truly, He is risen. May the Risen One bless you and give you His abundant mercy.

Christ is risen. Truly, He is risen. May the Risen One bless you and give you His abundant mercy.

CHRIST IS RISEN!
