Fourth Tone Ηχος Δ΄

Apolytikion of the Resurrection: “The joyful news of Your resurrection was proclaimed by the angel to the women disciples. Having thrown off the curse that fell on Adam, they ran elatedly to tell the apostles: Death has been vanquished; Christ our God is risen from the dead, blessing all the world with His great mercy.”

Apolytikion of St. John: “With the rivers of your tears, you have made the barren desert fertile. Through sighs of sorrow from deep within you, your labors have borne fruit a hundred-fold. By your miracles you have become a light, shining upon the world. O John, our Holy Father, pray to Christ our God, to save our souls.”

Apolytikion of the Church: “Blessed are You, O Christ our Lord and God, You who made all wise the fishermen Your Apostles, sending down upon them Your Spirit, which is Holy and through their work drawing the world into Your net, glory to You Who loves mankind.”

Kontakion: “To you, Theotokos, invincible Defender, having been delivered from peril, I and your City [Constantinople], dedicate the victory festival as a thanksgiving offering. In your irresistible might, keep me safe from all trials, that I may cry out to you: ‘Hail, Unwedded Bride!’”

GLUTTONY

In fasting, we curb gluttony which is the hypocrisy of the stomach.

The experience of eating is an indication of our mortality since this is the only way to sustain mortal flesh. The intake of calories (unit of energy) through the consumption of food provides the necessary energy, vitamins, and minerals for proper bodily functioning. Biologically speaking, food is the inferior of nature, even though it sustains our mortal bodies. Spiritually, the superior sustains the immortal soul. Eating reveals human weakness since it is something we require and is a direct witness that we are not God. God gives us both the physical food that we eat (our daily bread) and our spiritual food. Therefore, He is the sustainer of all things.

What comes to mind when you hear the word gluttony? You probably think of someone overweight and eating in large quantities. But as a passion, gluttony is a pathogen of the soul and body that distorts our relationship not only with our fellow humans, but also with our natural environment and our own bodies. Commonly thought of as a physical sin, it can be a spiritual sickness as with a “gluttonous soul” or “gluttonous spirit”.

The gluttonous person celebrates every Saturday and Sunday during Lent, since he knows the fasting is loosened a tiny bit. He counts the days to Pascha when he can celebrate the breaking of the fast. If we regard fasting as deprivation, then this reveals a gluttonous soul. If we look more forward to our Easter banquet, impressing our guests with the variety of foods that we will offer, than we do to the power of the life-shaping celebration of Christ’s Resurrection, gluttony is revealed.

Food is a gift from God: Then God said, “Behold, I have given you every seed-bearing herb that sows seed on the face of the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food.” But imbalance in food consumption has multiple effects on the person. Gluttony leads to an imbalance in our physical size and weight proportions. Thus, we become like the foolish rich man who “stores up” for himself the excess by constantly eating... we make our bodies the store house described in Luke 12. Our bodies should not be store houses of food but store houses of the Holy Spirit, since we are temples of the Holy Spirit.

Welcome Visitors

We welcome all those visiting our parish today and are pleased that you have chosen to worship with us. If you are looking for a friendly spiritual home, we invite you to become part of the Holy Trinity family. Fr. Peter would very much like to meet you. Please visit the Philoxenia/Fellowship table in the Bouras Center after services to meet parishioners and enjoy our Fellowship.

THE PROMISE
Is Now Available

Theosis Program – Bible Study – Wednesday Evenings During Lent “Ladder of Divine Ascent”

After the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts, you are invited to attend the Theosis Program at 7:45 PM in Room 101. This year the class will review the Ladder of Divine Ascent and read through “Thirty Steps to Heaven” which is available for purchase in the parish bookstore.

Salutations to the Theotokos – No Lenten Potluck Dinner this Friday

The Salutations or Akathist Hymn is celebrated every Friday night throughout Great Lent. Last Friday was the last Lenten potluck dinner. We are so grateful that you attended and enjoyed the fellowship after the Xairetesmoi Service. This Friday the service is a bit longer, so there will be no potluck dinner afterwards.

The Prayer of St. Ephraim the Syrian

The Prayer of St. Ephraim the Syrian is the quintessential Lenten prayer said every day throughout Great Lent. Incorporate this prayer into your own daily Lenten devotions. This simple prayer allows us to become more aware of our Lord and the many virtues we need to acquire and the vices that need to end.

Suggested Lenten Readings

Fr. Peter presents a list of amazing and spiritually uplifting books to read during Great Lent. Both “The Lenten Spring” and “Great Lent” are books that give the reader an understanding of the various themes we encounter during the seven weeks of Lent. There is no other book more powerful than St. John Climacus’ “The Ladder of Divine Ascent”. To this day in monasteries all over the world, this is the text that is read during mealtimes. A condensed version is offered in “Thirty Steps to Heaven”, the book that will be read during the Theosis Program on Wednesday nights during Lent. It is a necessity for those in the ascetic struggle. These, plus other titles, are available at Holy Trinity’s Bookstore.

New Bookstore Title Perfect for Lent

“Nistisima” is Greek for fasting. This is an ideal book for the Orthodox period of Great Lent. Recently published in 2022, it offers many traditional mouthwatering recipes along with many other classical ones that embrace the Lenten period. This book is hard to find so get yours today, while it is in stock. It is perfect to add to your cookbook collection.

AGAPE FUND

Support a Mission Priest

It's unbelievable how a small thing can grow into a tremendous success when our hearts are in the right place. The Support a Mission Priest (SAMP) Agape Fund raised awareness of OCMC's (Orthodox Christian Mission Center) efforts. Holy Trinity with her parishioners is now supporting some seven priests. Glory to God for this!

The Support a Mission Priest Program provides a subsidy to help priests in the Orthodox Church of Africa (Patriarchate of Alexandria) share the Faith, care for their communities, and provide for their families. Holy Trinity contributions are helping the following clergy:

His Grace Bishop Neofitos Kongai

Fr. Joseph Mukadi (Dem. Rep. of the Congo)

Fr. John Okello (Uganda)

Fr. Martin Bayang (Cameroon)

In addition, Fr. Peter and Presvytera Victoria committed to support His Grace Bishop Neofitos of Kenya. There are another four parishioners supporting mission priests in our parish. If you or your family would like to be part of this extraordinary effort, please contact Father Peter, he will get you connected so that you can Support a Mission Priest.

As Christian Stewards we are called to give back to God from the “first fruits” of our labor. We do this in large part by supporting Our Church, Our Spiritual Home. Each year during this time, I ask you to support our parish and her ministries in an intentional and meaningful way. We can do this by offering the first and the best of our fruits!

Thank you for your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure!
