Altar Candles - In loving memory of my beloved husband, Michael Greico†; parents, Spyridon† and Iphigenia† Keyhayes; brothers, †Rev. Fr. Bill and John K. Kehayes†

Vigil Light - In loving memory of George C. Kandres†, father of Presvytera Victoria

Apolytikion: “Before Your Passion, You raised Lazarus from the dead to confirm the common Resurrection for all, O Christ God. Therefore, we carry symbols of victory as did the youths, and we cry out to You, the Victor over death, ‘Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

Apolytikion: “As by baptism we were buried with Thee, O Christ our God, so by Thy Resurrection we were deemed worthy of immortal life; and praising Thee, we cry: ‘Hosanna in the highest; blessed is He that comes in the Name of the Lord.’”

Kontakion: “Being borne upon a throne in Heaven, and upon a colt on the earth, O Christ God, Thou didst accept the praise of the Angels and the laudation of the children as they cried to Thee: Blessed art Thou Who comest to recall Adam.”

PALM SUNDAY

On the Sunday before the Feast of Great and Holy Pascha, and at the beginning of Holy Week, the Orthodox Church celebrates one of its most joyous feasts of the year. Palm Sunday is the commemoration of the Entrance of our Lord into Jerusalem following His glorious miracle of raising Lazarus from the dead. Having anticipated His arrival and having heard of the miracle, the people went out to meet the Lord and welcomed Him with displays of honor and shouts of praise. On this day, we receive and worship Christ in this same manner, acknowledging Him as our King and our Lord.

Palm Sunday summons us to behold our King; the Word of God made flesh. We are called to behold Him not simply as the One who came to us once riding on a colt, but as the One who is always present in His Church, coming ceaselessly to us in power and glory at every Eucharist, in every prayer and sacrament, and in every act of love, kindness and mercy. He comes to free us from all our fears and insecurities, to take solemn possession of our souls, and to be enthroned in our hearts. He comes not only to deliver us from our deaths by His death and Resurrection, but also to make us capable of attaining the most perfect fellowship or union with Him. He is the King, who liberates us from the darkness of sin and the bondage of death. Palm Sunday summons us to behold our King, the vanquisher of death and the giver of life.

Palm Sunday summons us to accept both the rule and the kingdom of God as the goal and content of our Christian life. We draw our identity from Christ and His kingdom. The kingdom is Christ—His indescribable power, boundless mercy and incomprehensible abundance given freely to man. The kingdom does not lie at some point or place in the distant future. In the words of the Scripture, the kingdom of God is not only at hand [Matthew 3:2; 4:17], it is within us [Luke 17:21]. The kingdom is a present reality as well as a future realization [Matthew 6:10].

Palm Sunday summons us to behold our King—the Suffering Servant. We cannot understand Jesus' kingship apart from the Passion. Filled with infinite love for the Father, the Holy Spirit, and creation, in His inexpressible humility, Jesus accepted the infinite abasement of the Cross. He bore our grief and carried our sorrows; He was wounded for our transgressions and made Himself an offering for sin [Isaiah 53]. His glorification, which was accomplished by the Resurrection and the Ascension, was achieved through the Cross.

In the fleeting moments of exuberance that marked Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, the world received its King; the King who was on His way to death. His Passion, however, was no morbid desire for martyrdom. Jesus' purpose was to accomplish the mission for which the Father sent Him. This is all accomplished during the forthcoming Holy Week. Please attend these life-inspiring and moving services.

Welcome Visitors

We welcome all those visiting our parish today and are pleased that you have chosen to worship with us. If you are looking for a friendly spiritual home, we invite you to become part of the Holy Trinity family. Fr. Peter would very much like to meet you. Please visit the Philoxenia/Fellowship table in the Bouras Center after services to meet parishioners and enjoy our Fellowship.

Palm Sunday Fellowship Hour

Philoptochos invites you to join us for a special Palm Sunday Fellowship Hour. We thank all those individuals for their Lenten contributions to make this a special reception.

Tsoureki (Easter Bread) - Pick Up Sunday!

Please remember to pick up pre-ordered tsourekia from the Greek School table Sunday in the Bouras Center during the Fellowship Hour. There will be some extra tsourekia for sale on a first come, first served basis for $12. The Greek School PTO thanks you for your support.

SPECIAL VAN SERVICE

GREAT (HOLY) FRIDAY NIGHT, MAY 3 GREAT (HOLY) SATURDAY NIGHT, MAY 4

- Once the Church parking lot is full, the Westfield Police will direct you to Union County College parking lot 5B (the parking lot closest to Gallows Hill Road).
- A Station Cab van will transport you from the college parking lot to the front of the Church.
- After Church services have concluded, the van will pick you up in front of the Church and take you back to the college's parking lot.
- Please do not park on the cemetery property across from the Church. This is private property.
- You may park at Washington School on St. Mark's Place. There is a sidewalk that connects the school and the Church property. Parking is not permitted on either side of Gallows Hill Road in front of the Church or along the Church property or between the "No Parking" signs.

Thank you for your cooperation. If you have any questions, please call the Church office.

HOLY WEEK AND PASCHA PREPARATIONS

Special Collection for Easter Flowers - Sunday

A collection will be taken on Sunday for floral decorations for the Church and Kouvouklion. Your donation will ensure a beautiful church decorated with flowers. Make checks to: HTGOC.

Special Donations for Holy Week and/or Pascha

If you desire to make a special donation, call the church office to find out what items are available, such as flowers, icon floral decoration, candles, vigil light, incense, charcoal, and more.

Decorating the Kouvouklion

On Holy Friday, May 3, come in the morning to help decorate the kouvouklion or sepulcher of our Lord. This is no ordinary tomb, for from Christ's tomb blossoms forth life.

Red Easter Eggs - Bring to Church This Week

On Sunday, bags and instructions for preparing the Red Easter eggs will be distributed. We ask that the Red eggs be brought to the church kitchen on Holy Friday, May 3; or before 2 PM on Holy Saturday, May 4. Bags with instructions will be given out after church on Sunday. For questions, please see or contact Christina Colonias 917-825-5986. With your help everyone will receive an Easter egg on Pascha.

Holy Week Books - Now Available in Bookstore

Purchase your copy of the "Holy Week - Easter" book now available. This book contains the text for services from Palm Sunday Evening to Pascha Agape Vespers. The book helps the faithful navigate the many services that make up Holy Week. When we attend the services and use the book as a guide, we are spiritually uplifted by participating in a more meaningful way.

Agape Vespers Readers

During the Agape Vespers held on Easter Sunday at 11:00 AM, the Gospel passage is read in various languages to indicate the universality of Christ's Gospel of salvation. If you are able to read in a foreign language, please call Diana at the church office to volunteer.

AGAPE FUND

Support a Mission Priest

It's unbelievable how a small thing can grow into a tremendous success when our hearts are in the right place. The Support a Mission Priest (SAMP) Agape Fund raised awareness of OCMC's (Orthodox Christian Mission Center) efforts. Holy Trinity with her parishioners is now supporting some seven priests. Glory to God for this!

The Support a Mission Priest Program provides a subsidy to help priests in the Orthodox Church of Africa (Patriarchate of Alexandria) share the Faith, care for their communities, and provide for their families. Holy Trinity contributions are helping the following clergy:

His Grace Bishop Neofitos Kongai

Fr. Joseph Mukadi (Dem. Rep. of the Congo)

Fr. John Okello (Uganda)

Fr. Martin Bayang (Cameroon)

In addition, Fr. Peter and Presvytera Victoria committed to support His Grace Bishop Neofitos of Kenya. There are another four parishioners supporting mission priests in our parish. If you or your family would like to be part of this extraordinary effort, please contact Father Peter, he will get you connected so that you can Support a Mission Priest.

TOTS Playgroup - Friday, May 10

The next TOTS (Trinity Orthodox Toddler Social) meeting will be on Friday, May 10, 9:30-11:30 AM in the preschool room. Children 18 months-Pre-K are welcome with their caregivers (younger siblings welcome!). Bring water, sneakers, and a snack. Contact Val Comprelli at vcomprelli@gmail.com or 612-801-8608 to sign up or to ask any questions.

Parish Lenten Mission Project - OCMC Coin Boxes

OCMC Coin Boxes that were taken at the start of Lent can be brought to church anytime. We thank you for filling the boxes, not only with money, but with Christian love.

Trinity Circle - May 7

Please join us on Tuesday, May 7, for our monthly lunch/meeting from 11 AM -2 PM with speaker Steve Xenakis on “The Natural Wonders of Crete”. Lunch donated by Notis Kotsolios in memory of his beloved wife Theresa. May her memory be eternal.

New Members Celebratory Dinner & Reception - Friday, May 10

The Parish Council of Holy Trinity is hosting a Celebratory Dinner & Reception honoring new parish members & their families (2020 - present) on Friday, May 10, at 6:30 PM in the Bouras Center.
