Partaking of Holy Communion

Receiving Holy Communion is a clear and visible sign of unity in faith. Please know that Holy Communion can only be received by those who are baptized and confirmed in the Orthodox Church. Additionally, all Orthodox Christians must prepare themselves through prayer and fasting before approaching the Chalice.

Welcome Visitors

We welcome all those visiting our parish today and are pleased that you have chosen to worship with us. If you are looking for a friendly spiritual home, we invite you to become part of the Holy Trinity family. Fr. Peter would very much like to meet you. Please visit the Philoxenia/Fellowship table in the Bouras Center after services to meet parishioners and enjoy our Fellowship.

New Bookstore Titles

Visit Holy Trinity Bookstore for informative books on the Orthodox faith. New titles arrived this week including: books on parenting, St. Nektarios composition on Christology, Patristic Theology by Father John Romanidis and many more. fascinating options.

What is Life?

Life is a plague, say the existentialists.

Jesus says, "I am the Light of the world; he who follows Me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the Light of life." - John 8:12

Life is nausea, say those who deny God.

Jesus says, "I am the Bread of life; he who comes to Me shall never hunger; and he who believes in Me shall never thirst." - John 6:35

Life is dread, some people maintain.

Jesus says, "I came that they may have life and have it abundantly." - John 10:10

But you ask how can you say there is meaning in life when there is so much evil and suffering, so much distress and anguish?

Look at the Cross again. It was willed by wicked men, but God wove it into the salvation of the world. The greatest good came from the greatest evil. Our thorns, too, can become a crown if we live lives that are surrendered to Christ. "With them that love Him, God cooperates in all things for good," says St. Paul. And he goes on, "For this slight momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison." - 2 Corinthians 4:17

Malice will never drive out malice. But if someone does an evil to you, you should do good to him, so that by your good work you can destroy his malice. – a saying of a Desert Father

An elder says, “It is not because evil thoughts come to us that we are condemned; but only because we make use of the evil thoughts. It can happen that from these thoughts we suffer a shipwreck of the soul, but it can also happen that because of them we may be crowned with God’s glory, if we subdue the flesh.” – a saying of a Desert Father.

Reading the Communion Prayers - Pages 60-63 of Divine Liturgy Book

In Her wisdom, the Church provides beautiful prayers to say before and after receiving Holy Communion. These prayers are part of our Eucharistic preparation which also includes a complete fast in the morning (i.e., nothing by mouth) before receiving the Precious Gifts. As these prayers are read by the clergy in the altar, the faithful should join in at the same time by reading them silently. These Communion Prayers speak to us about faith and forgiveness; humility and cleansing of sins; and a feeling of unworthiness in the presence of the Almighty God. Finally, they reveal the benefits of receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. The conclusion of these prayers is seen in the priest who asks for forgiveness from his co-celebrants in the altar and then from the entire congregation. In like manner, each of us must ask for forgiveness from our brethren before approaching the Holy Chalice.

Communion Breakfast – Today!

Join us in the Bouras Center immediately following Divine Liturgy for a delicious breakfast. Limited seating is still available. $14.00 for adults, $6.00 for children.

Metropolis of New Jersey Facebook Page

His Eminence Metropolitan Apostolos wishes to inform all that the Metropolis has created a new Greek Orthodox Metropolis of New Jersey Facebook Page. Please visit and follow this page and share the link with fellow parishioners. www.facebook.com/people/Greek-Orthodox-Metropolis-of-New-Jersey/

Currently 253 Stewards have pledged $371,926

Thank you to the parishioners who submitted their pledge cards and stewardship gifts. As of February, we graciously received 253 pledges in the amount of $371,926. Please remember to submit your pledge card which will help us meet our operating budget of $939,200. Consider inviting family and friends to come to visit and worship with us. Sponsor a new steward and bring them into our Holy Trinity family.

Your gifts to date have allowed our Parish to achieve 39.6% of our budget and to support our annual Archdiocesan commitment, a gift to the Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew Foundation, and support our growing and vibrant ministries. Thank you!

As Christian Stewards we are called to give back to God from the “first fruits” of our labor. We do this in large part by supporting Our Church, Our Spiritual Home. Each year during this time, I ask you to support our parish and her ministries in an intentional and meaningful way. We can do this by offering the first and the best of our fruits!

The 2024 Christian Stewardship Cards have been mailed to all Stewards of Holy Trinity. If you did not receive it, please pick up a card from the church or call the church office to receive it by mail.

Thank you for your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure!
