Rev. Fr. Peter Delvizi, Parish Priest

On Sunday, March 10, we commemorate the Last Judgment and Christ's Impartial Second Coming, through which we bring to mind God, not only as the Friend of man, but also the most righteous Judge, Who recompenses to each according to his deeds; The Holy Martyr St. Kodratos of Corinth and those with him.

Grave Ηχος Βαρύς

Apolytikion of the Resurrection: "By Your cross, O Lord, You destroyed death; to the thief You opened paradise. The myrrh-bearers' sorrow You transformed into joy, and You sent Your apostles forth to proclaim that You had risen from the dead, Christ our God, bestowing on all the world Your great mercy."

Apolytikion of the Church: "Blessed are You, O Christ our Lord and God, You who made all wise the fishermen Your Apostles, sending down upon them Your Spirit, which is Holy and through their work drawing the world into Your net, glory to You Who loves mankind."

Kontakion: "When Thou, O God, wilt come to earth with glory, and all things tremble, and the river of fire floweth before the Judgment Seat, and the books are opened and the hidden things made public, then deliver me from the unquenchable fire, and deem me worthy to stand at Thy right hand, O most righteous Judge."

Partaking of Holy Communion

Receiving Holy Communion is a clear and visible sign of unity in faith. Please know that Holy Communion can only be received by those who are baptized and confirmed in the Orthodox Church. Additionally, all Orthodox Christians must prepare themselves through prayer and fasting before approaching the Chalice.

Welcome Visitors

We welcome all those visiting our parish today and are pleased that you have chosen to worship with us. If you are looking for a friendly spiritual home, we invite you to become part of the Holy Trinity family. Fr. Peter would very much like to meet you. Please visit the Philoxenia/Fellowship table in the Bouras Center after services to meet parishioners and enjoy our Fellowship.

Fellowship Hour: Please join us in the Bouras Center after church for the Fellowship Hour, which is being sponsored by Dina Colonias, and Zamanis and Priovolos families, in loving memory of Demetrios Zamanis†, Stella Priovolos† and Irene Zamanis†.

Saturday of the Souls Divine Liturgies

March 16 & 23

“Saturday of the Souls” (Ψυχοσάββατον) are days that the Holy Church has specifically prescribed to pray for those who have taken their repose in the Lord. Memorial Services will not be scheduled on the Sundays immediately following a Saturday of the Souls to help maintain its purpose. It is important to attend these liturgies to pray for the souls of your departed loved ones. By remembering them in death, we witness God’s ultimate power through Christ’s Resurrection. Please submit the names of the deceased to Fr. Peter so that they can be commemorated during the Saturday of Souls Liturgies.

Theosis Program – Bible Study – Wednesday Evenings During Lent

Ladder of Divine Ascent

After the Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts, you are invited to attend the Theosis Program at 7:45 PM in Room 101. This year the class will review the Ladder of Divine Ascent and read through “Thirty Steps to Heaven” which is available for purchase in the parish bookstore.

Salutations to the Theotokos – Friday Nights

The Akathist Hymn is celebrated every Friday night throughout Great Lent. Service begins at 6:30 PM. In this service, we call upon the protection and aid of the Mother of God. She is the one who is “Quick to Hear” and the “Port and Harbor” of those tossed about upon the waves of this world.

Friday Night Lenten Potluck Dinner after Salutation Services

Fridays – March 22, 29 & April 5, 12

Honoring the three pillars of Lent that are prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, Holy Trinity parishioners are invited to the parish Lenten Potluck Dinner following each Akathist Service on Friday nights during Great Lent. First, as a parish, we will gather in church for prayer honoring with grateful hearts the Theotokos with the Salutation Service. Afterwards, united by God's grace and as one family we will break bread together. This is the first time since COVID that we are able to return to this beautiful practice. Each parishioner is asked (if possible) to bring a Lenten cover-dish. Since we practice the complete rule of the Lenten fast, please do not bring items with meat, cheese, dairy, eggs, or fish. Shellfish and oil are permitted.

Cheesefare Week (March 11 – March 17)

Cheesefare week, the last full week before Great Lent begins. Although not specifically liturgical, Cheesefare week follows Meatfare Sunday (Feb. 27). This is the last week to partake of dairy before Lent. Also, during this week we begin fasting from meat (for those who are able). Traditionally, this is the final week to have parties and celebrations that are not proper during the solemn nature of the Lenten season. Big parties, weddings, and other major celebrations are rarely permitted during Lent.

The parable of the Last Judgement is about Christian love. Not all of us are called to work as humanitarians yet each one of us has received the gift and the grace of Christ's love. We know that all people ultimately need this personal love - the recognition in them of their unique soul in which the beauty of the whole creation is reflected in a unique way. We also know that men are in prison and are sick and thirsty and hungry because they have been denied personal love.

St. John Chrysostom speaks on the Last Judgement in a perplexing way. "What a strange kind of a judgment it is. In judgement there is no judge. There's no defense lawyer. There's no prosecuting attorney. There's even no jury. There's just Christ and us." That's it. And we pronounce the judgment on ourselves. How do we do it? The Lord tells us in this parable. He said when all the nations and all the people are gathered before him, he will separate them. The verb, "separate," is where you get the verb "judge, krisis." It means to kind of set a line down the middle to show how things actually are. In fact, you might say judging means to make that decision: where do you stand? Where do you put yourself at this judgment?

We know that however narrow and limited the framework of our personal existence, each one of us has been made responsible for a tiny part of the Kingdom of God, made responsible by that very gift of Christ's love. Thus, on whether or not we have accepted this responsibility, on whether we have loved or refused to love, shall we be judged. For "inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, you have done it unto Me..."

Reading the Communion Prayers - Pages 60-63 of Divine Liturgy Book

In Her wisdom, the Church provides beautiful prayers to say before and after receiving Holy Communion. These prayers are part of our Eucharistic preparation which also includes a complete fast in the morning (i.e., nothing by mouth) before receiving the Precious Gifts. As these prayers are read by the clergy in the altar, the faithful should join in at the same time by reading them silently. These Communion Prayers speak to us about faith and forgiveness; humility and cleansing of sins; and a feeling of unworthiness in the presence of the Almighty God. Finally, they reveal the benefits of receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. The conclusion of these prayers is seen in the priest who asks for forgiveness from his co-celebrants in the altar and then from the entire congregation. In like manner, each of us must ask for forgiveness from our brethren before approaching the Holy Chalice.

Stewardship Cards

Thank you to the parishioners who submitted their pledge cards and stewardship gifts. As of February, we have received 261 pledges in the amount of $380,526. Please remember to submit your pledge card which will help us meet our operating budget of $939,200. Consider inviting family and friends to come to visit and worship with us. Sponsor a new steward and bring them into our Holy Trinity family. Your gifts to date have allowed our Parish to achieve 40.5% of our budget. Holy Trinity is blessed in that we do not have a mortgage as do many other parishes. This allows for a greater percentage of your Stewardship pledge to be utilized for ministry rather than given to the bank. As you can see, the parish has many thriving ministries, and we want every parishioner to be involved with our ministries.

As Christian Stewards we are called to give back to God from the “first fruits” of our labor. We do this in large part by supporting Our Church, Our Spiritual Home. Each year during this time, I ask you to support our parish and her ministries in an intentional and meaningful way. We can do this by offering the first and the best of our fruits!

The 2024 Christian Stewardship Cards have been mailed to all Stewards of Holy Trinity. If you did not receive it, please pick up a card from the church or call the church office to receive it by mail.

Thank you for your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure!

Holy Trinity's signature youth event, Sights and Sounds, celebrated its 52nd Anniversary of this wonderful event! We had much to celebrate as this year's festival brought together our youth from the Northern Metropolis of New Jersey. This year our day was filled with over 200 performances and throughout the Bouras Center over 1200 sights were displayed! Despite the rain all day, nervous excitement filled the air. We hosted approximately 600 GOYANs, advisors, chaperones, judges, priests, presvyteres, and volunteers who joined us to celebrate and witness the amazing talents of our youth. We were also honored with the arrival of His Eminence, Metropolitan Apostolos, who engaged with the youth and addressed our GOYANs after watching several performances in the Bouras Center as well as some individual solos in our other performance rooms. We were so blessed to have His Eminence join us in celebrating our 52nd Festival. Our facility was decorated with their spectacular artistry. It was a fantastic event for all who were involved! All of the youth performers and participants should be congratulated for their dedication, passion, and efforts which made this event so enjoyable and worthwhile. It is inspirational to see our collective youth members share their God-given talents with each other in Christian unity.

With any event of such magnitude, the efforts of many were necessary to ensure all details, logistics, and challenges were met. As chairmen, we are blessed to have Host Committee members who give freely of themselves without hesitation and work diligently to recruit and train volunteers, set up and break down the venue repeatedly, coordinate judges, and provide meals, snacks, security and supervision so that the day runs smoothly for all. Our host committee works endlessly and collaboratively. They exemplify the principles of our Christian beliefs. We pray that God will bless them.

Please also allow us to share with you the following recognitions:

Our incredible mentors, steadfast advisors and tireless supporters: Eugene and Pam Gentile

Our wonderful Host Committee: Marigo Markos, Ellen Manos-Athenson, Yiana Leichtling, Maria Kanaras, Roula Ioannou, Keli Leunes, Christina Colonias, Ron and Andrea Cerini, George Colonias, Ellen Conti, Stephen Ladas, Debbie Vlahakis, Maria Tarhanidis, and Sophia Saketos.

Our Special Helpers: Diana Waltsak and Kathy Genakos

Our Masters of Ceremony: Pascale Kovalakis and Peter Koniaris

Our Videographer: Stephanie Youlios

Our Custodial Crew who spent many hours helping to keep our facility operational and clean and then stayed all night to make certain we were ready for services and religious education the following day.

Special thank you's: We express our deep appreciation to Father Peter for his leadership, love and support throughout the months leading up to and including the day of Sights and Sounds; to our fabulous kitchen crew led by Stephen Ladas, who worked so hard to prepare breakfast, lunch and a delicious pasta and meatball dinner; to the youth of Holy Trinity and their parents who assisted in both set-up as well as restoration of all classrooms, bathrooms and the Bouras Center; to the many special volunteers from our parish who assisted throughout the day; and to all the former chairmen of the Sights and Sounds Festival whose vision and talents have contributed to making this successful.

We thank you, our fellow parishioners, for entrusting the Sights & Sounds Festival to us. Holy Trinity is a unique and special community. It is truly an honor for us to begin our chapter in serving in the capacity of chairmen of this parish's signature event as we work in the glory of God to nurture and challenge our youth in developing their love, faith, hope and fulfillment of dreams. Truly, Christ is among us.
