Apolytikion: “Christ is risen from the dead by death has He trampled upon death and to those in the tombs he has granted life.”

Apolytikion: “The joyful news of Your resurrection was proclaimed by the angel to the women disciples. Having thrown off the curse that fell on Adam, they ran elatedly to tell the apostles: Death has been vanquished; Christ our God is risen from the dead, blessing all the world with His great mercy.”

Apolytikion of Mid-Pentecost: “O Lord, midway through the feast, give drink to my thirsty soul from the living waters of right belief. You, O Savior, proclaimed to everyone, “Let whoever is thirsty come to Me and drink.” You are the Fountain of life, O Christ our God. Glory to You!”

Apolytikion of the Patriarchs: “O Illustrious leaders and shepherd of Byzantium, you have been regarded throughout different ages as wise hierarchs. Wherefore, the Church of Christ praises the manner of your life. Through Her, as eminent luminaries, you give light to those who cry out, ‘Glory to

Her who aided you, glory to Him who crowned you, glory to Him who, through you, affirmed the Orthodox faith.”

Apolytikion of the Church: “Blessed are You, O Christ our Lord and God, You who made all wise the fishermen Your Apostles, sending down upon them Your Spirit, which is Holy and through their work drawing the world into Your net, glory to You Who loves mankind.”

Kontakion: “Though Thou, O deathless One, didst descend into the grave, Thou didst destroy the power of Hades and as Victor, Thou didst rise again, O Christ our God. Thou didst greet the Myrrh-bearing women, saying: Rejoice! Thou didst bestow peace upon Thy disciples, and resurrection upon those that are fallen.”

Welcome Visitors

Our parish welcomes those visiting our community. Worshipping the Holy Trinity is the principal act of an Orthodox parish, especially on the Day of the Resurrection (Sunday). Our mission is to live the Holy Gospel and spread the Good News to those in our area. We are sanctified by God’s grace through the holy Sacraments and glorify Him each moment of the day. We seek God’s mercy, as we confess the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Visit the Philoxenia/Fellowship table in the Bouras Center after service to meet parishioners and enjoy our Fellowship Hour.

Parish Assembly – Sunday, May 17

Holy Trinity will hold its Spring Parish Assembly meeting on Sunday, May 17, after church services. This is an important meeting as many aspects of parish life will be discussed. Your attendance and participation at the Parish Assembly is important. Notification of this meeting will be mailed to each Steward’s home.

Philoptochos Mother’s Day Fellowship Hour – Sunday, May 10

Please join the Philoptochos for a special Fellowship Hour in the Bouras Center as we honor our women of the congregation on this Mother's Day. Our sincere thanks to all those who contributed and helped prepare for this lovely celebration.

Happy Mother's Day!

God bless all mothers, grandmothers, great-grandmothers, godmothers, aunts, and spiritual mothers, those who are with us and those of blessed memory.

Flowers given after the church service have been generously and anonymously donated, in honor of the special women in our lives!

"Her children are raised by her charity and they become rich."
~ Proverbs 31:27

LET GOD ARISE AND LET HIS ENEMIES BE SCATTERED; LET THOSE WHO HATE HIM FLEE FROM BEFORE HIS FACE!

A sacred Pascha is shown to us today; a new and Holy Pascha;
A mystic Pascha; an all-venerable Pascha;
A Pascha which is Christ the Redeemer; a spotless Pascha;
A great Pascha; a Pascha of the faithful;
A Pascha which has opened to us the gates of Paradise;
A Pascha sanctifying all the faithful.

CHRIST IS RISEN!

GLORY TO THE FATHER, AND TO THE SON, AND TO THE HOLY SPIRIT; NOW AND EVER, AND TO THE AGES OF AGES. AMEN.

It is the Day of Resurrection!
Let us shine forth in splendor for the Festival,
And embrace one another. Let us say,
“O brethren, even to those who hate; let us forgive all things in
The Resurrection, and thus let us exclaim:
‘Christ is risen from the dead, trampling Death by death, and Bestowing life to those in the tombs.’”

Stewardship

In the life of the Church, Stewardship is a sacred response to God's abundant blessings. It is how we actively participate in the life of the parish, offering our time in service, our talents in ministry, and our treasure in support of Christ's mission.

Holy Trinity is our spiritual and cultural center, a place like no other, rooted in faith. It nurtures joy and a deep sense of purpose in giving. Our parish remains a vibrant spiritual home thanks to your faithfulness. Stewardship directly impacts:

- Meaningful outreach ministries, serving those in need in our local community and beyond
- It sustains and grows our youth and young adult programs, forming the next generation in the Orthodox faith
- It preserves and expands our liturgical life, education, and parish ministries, ensuring that the fullness of Orthodoxy is lived and experienced

Each of these expressions brings our faith to life, not only within our walls, but in the world. Each year, we prayerfully establish a Stewardship goal that reflects both our needs and our mission.

For 2026, our parish Stewardship goal is $650,000.

To date, the faithful have committed approximately $400,000, while in previous years at this point, we were closer to $470,000.

This leaves a sizable gap as we seek to fully fund the ministries and mission entrusted to us.

How can each of us prayerfully consider our role in ensuring the continued strength and growth of our parish? We are invited - each according to our ability - to renew and deepen our commitment to stewardship. Please help us!

- If you have not yet pledged, you are warmly invited to make a commitment.
- Submit your 2026 Stewardship Card so that the faithful can give us direction.
- If your circumstances have changed, we ask you to prayerfully discern a meaningful gift.
- If you have already pledged, we ask you to consider whether you can increase your offering.

Together, through sacrificial and joyful giving, we can close this gap and meet our goal. Stewardship is ultimately an act of faith. It reflects our trust in God, our love for His Church, and our commitment to one another as the Body of Christ.

Let us move forward united in purpose, so that Holy Trinity may continue to be a beacon of faith, hope, and love serving Christ in all we do.

THE HOLY PROPHET ISAIAH ~ May 9

This great prophet was of royal lineage. Isaiah was born in Jerusalem of his father Amoz, who was the brother of Amaziah, the King of Judah. By the great grace of God that was in him, Isaiah was made worthy to see the Lord of Sabaoth on the throne in heaven surrounded by six-winged seraphim who continuously sing: Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of Sabaoth [Hosts] (Isaiah 6:3). Isaiah prophesied many things to individual men as well as to the people. On one occasion, he walked naked through the streets of Jerusalem for three days, prophesying the imminent fall of Jerusalem to the Assyrian King Sennacherib, and reminding the king and the leaders of the people not to hope in assistance from the Egyptians or Ethiopians, because they too would be subjugated to the same Sennacherib, but rather to trust in help from God the Most High. This prophesy, as well as other prophecies, was literally fulfilled. Isaiah's most important prophecies are the ones concerning the Incarnation of God,

His conception by the All-holy Virgin, John the Forerunner, and many events in the life of Christ. [Therefore, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign; Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call His name Emmanuel (Isaiah 7:14). For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: his name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace (Isaiah 9:6). The voice of him that cries in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord and make straight in the desert a highway for our God (Isaiah 40:3).] This prophet, because of the purity of his heart and his zealousness toward God, also received the gift of working miracles. Thus, when the besieged Jerusalem suffered from drought, Isaiah prayed to God and water flowed from beneath Mount Zion. This water was called Siloam, which means "sent." Later, the Lord directed the man who was blind from birth to bathe in this water to gain his sight. During the reign of King Manasses, when Isaiah thundered against the pagan customs of the king and the leaders, comparing that generation with Sodom and Gomorrah, the anger of the leaders and the people was aroused against this great prophet. He was captured and led out of Jerusalem, and was sawn in half. Isaiah lived and prophesied about seven hundred years before Christ.

THE TRANSLATION OF THE RELICS OF SAINT NICHOLAS THE WONDERWORKER OF MYRA IN LYCIA – May 9

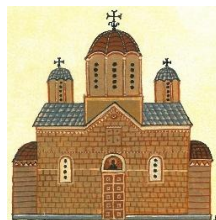

In 1087 A.D., during the reign of Emperor Alexius Comnenus and Patriarch Nicholas Grammaticus, the body of this saint was translated from Myra in Lycia to the town of Bari in Italy. This occurred because of the Moslem assault on Lycia. The saint appeared in a dream to an honorable priest in Bari and ordered that his relics be translated to this town. At that time, Bari was Orthodox and under an Orthodox patriarch. During the translation of this saint's relics, many miracles occurred either through touching the relics or from the myrrh [oil] that abundantly flowed from them. Also on this day is commemorated the miracle St. Nicholas wrought on the Serbian King, Stefan of Dečani. This was when St. Nicholas restored sight to the blinded King Stefan.

THE HOLY MARTYR SAINT CHRISTOPHER – May 9

St. Christopher was a great miracle-worker. He is especially venerated in Spain. The people pray to him primarily for protection from contagious diseases and great pestilence. He suffered for Christ and was glorified by Christ in the year 249 A.D.

Heavenly Easter

O Heavenly Easter!...by thee the darkness of death has been destroyed and life poured out on every creature, the gates of Heaven have been opened, God has shown Himself as man and humanity has ascended and become God! Thanks to thee the gates of Hades have been shattered! Thanks to thee the great banqueting hall is full for the marriage feast, all guests are wearing a wedding garment and no one, having no garment, will be cast away... Thanks to thee the fire of love is burning in all, in spirit and body, fed by the very oil of Christ. - Hippolytus

When we speak about wisdom, we are speaking of Christ. When we speak about virtue, we are speaking of Christ. When we speak about justice, we are speaking of Christ. When we speak about peace, we are speaking of Christ. When we speak about truth and life and redemption, we are speaking about Christ. – St. Ambrose

Thus the soul is completely illumined with the unspeakable beauty of the glory of light of the face of Christ and is perfectly made participator of the Holy Spirit. It is privileged to be the dwelling-place and the throne of God, all eye, all light, all face, all glory and all spirit, made so by Christ who drives, guides, carries, and supports the soul about and adorns and decorates the soul with His spiritual beauty. – Pseudo-Macarius

T.O.T.S.- (Trinity Orthodox Toddler Social)

Mission Statement

The mission of the Trinity Orthodox Toddler Social (T.O.T.S.) of Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church is to provide an environment fostering fellowship and prayer for children aged 18 months to 4 years of age and their mother, father and/or caregiver. Children are encouraged to develop a sense of comfort and security in God's house while experimenting in independent and cooperative age-appropriate play under their caregiver's supervision. Concurrently, the toddler social enables these adults the opportunity to meet, pray, and socialize.
